

No other remedy has proved so effective in relieving Coughs and Colds as Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

Dr. Harter's Fever and Aque Specific is endorsed by all physicians, and prescribed by them in their practice. For sale by Monahan & Jones, Jackson, O.

For the past few days the weather has been quite cold. On Tuesday morning the thermometer stood at 6 degrees below.

The tinkling of the bells is heard upon our streets day and night. The heavy coal wagons, as they slowly move along the streets, give out that singing sound only made by wagons in extremely cold weather.

Visiting committee for the Public Schools, Friday, January 11, 1878. Mrs. Mark Sternberger and Mr. O. S. Miller. T. S. MATTHEWS, Sec'y.

Preaching every evening this week at the Baptist Church. Church meeting next Saturday at 2 p. m. Services next Sabbath morning and evening. J. S. REASONER.

Joel F. Starkey is agent for the Adams Express Company on the Narrow Gauge Railroad. It connects with the Scioto Valley road, and Mr. Starkey says he can deliver goods from any point, at same rates charged by the M. & C. R. R.

On Tuesday we received an order from Lily Postoffice, Scioto county, on which we had six cents additional postage to pay. We intend to deduct it from the money sent. If people have no more sense than to send a pile of coppers by mail, they should be made pay for it.

A large mail business is now carried on by way of the Narrow Gauge Railroad. We now have four arrivals of daily mails. One in the morning, one at noon, and one in the afternoon by the M. & C. R. R., and the Narrow Gauge road. These, together with the cross mails, gives us superior mail facilities for an inland town.

This is called the Week of Prayer, and services are held at the churches day and night. As this is the time of the year to seek after religious truth, we would like to have some of the exponents of the Scriptures to tell us how they reconcile these public prayer meetings with what Christ commanded in Matthew, 6th chapter, 5-8 verses.

With all the testimony in its favor, together with our personal knowledge of it, we commend "Lawson's Curative" to our friends, with confidence that it will do them good. For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Headache, Pains in the Back or Limbs, in fact, whenever a cooling and healing embrocation is needed, use the "Curative." For sale by W. F. Hale, Jackson, Ohio. 10Jan28

We publish the new time table of the Scioto Valley Railroad. We are not sure that it is correct, as the copy sent was lithographed, and a poor attempt to imitate very poor writing. It is dim, blurred and almost illegible. Why cannot people act with a little common sense? If that time table had been printed on clear Roman type, it would have prevented current in every printing office to which it was sent.

The Infirmary Directors have made arrangements for religious services at the Infirmary on each alternate Sabbath throughout the year, at 2 o'clock P. M. each Sabbath. The following ministers have kindly consented to attend, each one every tenth week, as follows: Rev. C. F. Creighton Jan. 13th, March 24th, June 2d, August 11th, October 20th, and December 29th.

Rev. E. W. Lloyd January 27th, April 7th, June 16th, August 25th, and Nov. 3d. Rev. J. K. Gibson Feb. 10th, April 21st, June 30th, Sept. 8th, and Nov. 17th. Rev. L. A. Atkinson Feb. 24th, May 5th, July 14th, Sept. 23d, and Dec. 1st. Rev. H. J. Carr March 10th, May 19th, July 28th, Oct. 6th, and Dec. 15th.

Rev. Mr. McCabe, of Greenfield, called on us on Monday morning. He reports the temperance movement in Greenfield in a prosperous condition. Hon. H. L. Dickey, member of Congress, resides there. Mr. Dickey was a very low drunkard, and this came very near defeating him in the election, although there was a very large Democratic majority in the district. Last summer Mr. Dickey joined the Murphy temperance pledge, and made temperance speeches, and Mr. McCabe informs us that he still remains faithful to his pledge.

Last Friday night was a big time at the M. E. Church. Gen. Hurst failed to make his appearance, and Mr. Longman made a speech, after which voting on the Sewing Machine was begun, under the supervision of J. H. Wilson. Mary Gardner and Abbie Pierce soon ran ahead of all others. Nellie Messenger got several votes. A combination of men was formed to give the machine to Mary Gardner, on the ground that she really needed it, while none of the others named did. So the voting went on, until 10:30 o'clock. Miss Gardner and Miss Pierce were kept nearly even until just before the expiration of the time, when over one hundred votes were given for Miss Gardner, and the matter was settled. The proceeds of the machine amounted to $88.23. C. A. Atkinson presented the machine in a neat little speech, and Miss Gardner responded in a few appropriate words of thanks.

During the voting, the oyster supper in the basement was in full blast, and large numbers of persons partook. The oysters were furnished by J. B. Howe, the great Wanzer machine manager, and the other necessities were furnished by lawyer Paine, and the oysters were cooked by Sam. Pindexter, and served by Paine, Howe, and a few women. Every thing was managed so nicely that a note of thanks was extended to Howe and Paine, and a neat and appropriate response made by Mr. Paine, who claimed to be the talking member of the good-looking, red-haired firm of Howe & Paine. The proceeds of the supper were over $30.

It is a sad sight to see an intoxicated person on the street. How much more so it is to see a dull and sickly baby rendered so by dangerous opiates? Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup contains nothing in the least injurious and may be given to the most delicate baby. Price 25 cents.

Lost—a black and white spotted sow, with eight small pigs. Please inform. A. S. MESSENGER.

Some time ago we spoke of Aaron Aten, of this place, going to Cincinnati to have an operation performed on his leg. Mr. Aten got home on Tuesday, nearly well.

The temperance meetings last week were pretty well attended, and the speeches were interesting. We believe there was only one person who signed the pledge. Rev. C. F. Creighton spoke at the M. E. Church on Wednesday night, Homer C. Jones at the Presbyterian Church on Thursday night, J. W. Longman at the M. E. Church on Friday night, as Gen. Hurst failed to come.

St. Louis, January 2, 1878. No. 2915 James Street.

Mr. D. Mackley—Dear Sir: Will you please publish the enclosed slip, taken from the New Albany, Ind. Ledger Standard, of the 20th Dec., so my friends in Jackson County may know of my sad loss.

I had to leave my children with their aunt, (Mrs. Condit) in New Albany. By giving this notice in your valuable paper, you will oblige Your friend,

ALLEN B. GILLILAND.

DEATH OF MRS. GILLILAND. Mrs. Molly F. Gilliland died at St. Louis, December 25th, 1877, at 5:30 a. m.

where she had been residing the past seven years. Her mother, Mrs. Byers, and sister, Mrs. Condit, of this city, were with her. She was the youngest sister, being 33 years old last June, there being only two left, Mrs. Condit and Mrs. Staples, of Battle Creek, Mich. She had been sick for some time. Her physicians had hopes of curing her until the past few days. She leaves two children (girls) one 12 and the other 5 years old, bright and interesting. She was first married to Mr. Charles Hays, in 1854, who was drowned in Red river several years ago.

About 7 years ago she was married again to Capt. A. B. Gilliland, of St. Louis, who is connected with the Keokuk northern line packet Co. Mrs. G. was a Christian and a member of one of the Baptist churches of St. Louis. The family and remains will be here at 10 o'clock tomorrow and the funeral will take place from the family residence of Mr. Condit, on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to which friends and acquaintances are invited.

JACKSON, O., JANUARY 7, 1878. To the Editor of the Standard:

I wish to say through the Standard that I have read with profound interest the remarks of Hon. James Tripp, relative to the rise and progress of Jackson county, and I fully appreciate his effort to enlist our people in favor of improved public highways, believing this to be an enterprise which, if carried into effect, will bring more real good to more people than any other enterprise involving the expenditure of the same amount of money. Certainly past achievements are of the most gratifying character, and the present financial status of the county such as to fully warrant further effort in the line of progress. Let us hear freely from the people on this most important matter.
